Vision, Mission And Core Values

Vision

To be a leading and vibrant centre of excellence in sustainable agriculture, food, nutrition and environmental sciences and stewardship.

Mission

To maintain a leadership role in the pursuit of knowledge through relevant and quality research, teaching, training for sustainable development, consultancy and outreach and to contribute to increased human resources, agricultural productivity, agri-business development, poverty reduction, and food security using environmentally sustainable technologies.

Core Values

The Faculty of Agriculture operates within certain treasured beliefs, which have contributed to its success. The Faculty endeavours to:

- Uphold the virtues of integrity, honesty, meritocracy and fair play in all activities
- Carry out duties with commitment, dedication and professionalism
- Create and maintain a sense of belonging and collective responsibility
- Build teamwork and strong partnerships with all stakeholders
- Promote evidence-based policy processes in food and nutrition, agriculture and environment
- Foster a strong and committed sense of social responsibility and citizenship
- Embrace innovativeness, independence of mind and pro-activeness
- Develop morally and ethically upright professionals
